Featured speaker

Tony Strickland

Tony Strickland has served three terms in the California State Assembly as the representative to the Thirty-Seventh District, which is comprised of the Ventura County. In the State Assembly, Mr. Strickland quickly established a reputation as the taxpayer advocate and a representative with skills to reach independent solutions to make government more accountable. Mr. Strickland was the 2006 Republican nominee for the California State Controller. Join us to hear more about Mr. Strickland's advocacy experiences.
